

Environmental Action

Promoting Environmental Awareness Across The Book Industry

The Booksellers Association encourages all members to reduce its carbon emissions, operate more sustainably and reduce the impact of book publishing and bookselling on the environment.

The BA helps members to:

- reduce carbon emissions
- recycle more
- reduce the use of packaging and plastic bags
- reduce energy consumption and transport costs
- reduce returns
- source environmentally friendly paper and other products

For more information go to: green4books